

A relatively inexpensive and highly versatile cover crop either sown alone or as a companion to other species.

It is ideal for early cover and although killed off by frost, the fallen woody stems will create shelter for the birds below.

This is especially useful when sown with seed producing species which alone would provide no cover.

Popular as a green manure crop (see cover crop section)

Ratings

Cover Crop

Feed Crop

Nectar Source

Seed Rate	Pack Size	S
6 - 17kg/ha	10 & 25kg	U

Organic seed available in 25kg packs