

Westerwolds is the annual type of Italian Ryegrass and is the fastest growing grass. Westerwolds are used when high production is required within 3-6 months after sowing.

- Suitable for silage, hay production and zero grazing
- Can be used as a catch crop after maize harvest for very early Spring growth
- Can be used as a companion grass to slower establishing species

Ratings

Yield
Persistency
Winter hardiness
Spring growth (early)
Grazing tolerance
Digestibility
Protein	